Small Is Beautiful III

As a daily expression, the word “small” is often employed to convey an idea of affinity and charm of the depicted object. In this day and age, with the boundless information flow ceaselessly challenging and compressing our mind, as the most acute representation of the age, art presents a most diverse landscape. “Small is Beautiful” is the title of a group exhibition introduced by Art Seasons in 2013 to explore what art conveys and its multiple implications in the social context from a micro (small) perspective, trying to make sense of or grapple with the grander (big) voice of contemporary art. Using a carefree attitude and by touching on grave issues, the word “small” is infused with a unique significance.

In addition, the expressive power of small artworks is also reflected in the comparative relationship with the space in which they are displayed. Doubtless, the structural study of the art field is an important part of the theme of this exhibition as well as its visual exploration.

The third round of the show will be presented in collaboration with Banyan Art Map-ing

“小”，作为一种日常修辞，常会使被描述的对象体现出亲切的、随和的魅力。在这个时代，庞大的信息量无休止地挑战和挤压着我们的神经，艺术作为时代精神最敏锐的表征，同样呈现出纷杂的面貌和样态。
Small Is Beautiful 是季节画廊2013年开启的一个年度群展项目，意在从（当代）展览的能指出发，以“小”的形制探讨问题承载和艺术多义的可能性，力图以此角度应答或对峙当代艺术的“大”的权力话语，以自由轻松之态度、以四两之勇气力拨千斤之钩，唯此，“小”才有它的意义。

另外，体量较小的作品的表达効力也体现在作品与所处空间有趣的对比关系上。毫无疑问，展示机制的研究呈现依然是此次展览主题探索和视觉思考的重要部分。

Small Is Beautiful 第三回展将与“半野艺术家地图项目”携手呈现。
